Another Grand Challenge for Babcock

Elk Point's Murray Babcock skipped his rink to another Grand Challenge win this weekend, taking the First Event final at the Elk Point Mixed Open Bonspiel by an easy margin. Just two weeks ago, the Babcock rink claimed top honors at Lindbergh.

The Doug Berg Memorial trophies went to Babcock and rinkmates Linda Grabas, Leonard Grabas, and Sharon Hildebrandt for their victory over the Jim Vermette rink from Edmonton. The Babcock foursome also took home decorator telephones, while the Vermette rink received clock radio telephones for the ladies and binoculars for the men. Crystal stemware and cooler sets went to the third place "Doug and Co." rink from Bonnyville, while curling gloves and sports bags went to the Bill McCaffrey rink, in fourth place.

An action-packed Second Event final saw the Jim Fell rink take the Universal Bottle Depot trophies plus prizes of ice fishing augers and gold nugget rings, while their opponents on the Steve Penz rink received cordless screwdrivers and cameras. Third place and a prize of hunting knives and gold chains went to the Don Buryn rink, while calculator notebooks and leather purses went to the Don Anderson rink for fourth place.

The Third Event final went right down to the wire, with Reo VanMaarion rink working hard for the Double S Confectionery trophies and prizes of toaster ovens and cordless drills. The Barrie Young rink took home cordless mixers and vests for second place. Third place went to The Zack rink, who received stainless steel vacuum bottles and thermal beverage servers, while the fourth place Allan Berg rink won battery lanterns and calculator checkbooks. "Mason Jar" mugs filled with trail mix went to the First Team Out, whose names have been withheld by popular demand.

A total of 27 rinks took part in the four-day spiel, which included a banquet and dance Saturday evening.

Cash and prize donors were: Sears Canada Inc., Macleods, Phil's Allied Hardware, Johnny's Hardware and Sports, Work Wearhouse, Co-op, Zellers (Lloydminster), JorAnn Enterprises, Lakeland Tire, Ultimate Upholstery, Alberta Treasury Branch and Westmin Resources. Door prize donors were Andersons Gravel Hauling, Country Bulk Foods, Capital Drugs, Tags Foods, CBM Confectionery, Treasury Branch, OK3 Bakery, Double S Confectionery, Co-op, Stedman's, Tarsand's Steam Cleaning, Alberta Wheat Pool, JorAnn Enterprises and the Elk Point and District Curling Club.

World oil price threatens projects

By Clare Gauvreau
Staff Writer

Oil companies financing heavy oil recovery projects in the Lindbergh fields are keeping a close eye on the world oil market. If further price drops occur the plug may very well be pulled on some Elk Point area projects. Something which would have a disastrous impact for an area which has grown by leaps and bounds during recent years.

However, for the time being company spokespersons maintain they are proceeding with business as usual and are not taking any drastic measures yet.

"I guess we are all in the same position at the moment," Monte Montemurro, vice president of development for Pan Canadian, told the Journal.

"It (the world price) has caused an awful lot of commotion in this company. At present it is very serious and if there's no change soon we'll all be hurting."

Pan Canadian is in the first phase of its planned three-phase project and at the moment is producing 3,000 barrels of oil per day with 120 wells drilled. Plans for this year included the drilling of 20 additional wells, however, Montemurro said chances are they will be put on hold.

"We still feel good about Elk Point but the project could get delayed," he said. "It doesn't take much imagination to see that if the price doesn't go up we're all in trouble."

Amoco spokesperson Hollie Zuurro said that company is re-evaluating all of its activity in light of the oil price drop. Amoco has about $50 million invested in phase one (an experimental evaluation) of its proposed three-phase project and has 184 wells operating with about 50 employees on the payroll.

Amoco's second phase is slated to get underway in 1987 but, according to Zuurro, the company will have to take some serious action if oil prices don't take a change for the better.

Meanwhile, David Annesly of Dome Petroleum, said it was still a little "too early" to respond to the world oil price saying the company has yet to curtail any capital spending. He did say a prolonged "softening" of world oil prices would change that. Dome is looking at a $300 million five-phase project for the Elk Point area.

For now, Annesly said Dome has made "no change" in its plans for its Elk Point project.

Westmin also has yet to make a move in response to the oil price.

"To date it has had no effect. We haven't cut back on production at all, we haven't laid off any employees, and we haven't cut back on any construction," Wayne Watmough, vice-president of heavy oil, said.

Westmin has about $150 million invested in its Elk Point project to date with 325 wells operating, 114 of which were drilled in the last months of 1985 and beginning of 1986. At present, there are about 82 workers on site.

Watmough said the company is "very concerned" about the oil price but also feels it is still too early to react and has made no move to cut back in Elk Point.

"We would think the problem is a short-lived blitz," he said.

But, Murphy Oil, in the midst of construction of its $31 million first phase, has postponed the drilling of 30 additional wells scheduled for this year, according to thermal operations manager Linden Bland.

Bland described the postponement of the wells as a serious setback. In addition, the company will also delay proceeding with phase two of its project if no change in price is realized on the world oil market.

"The price is down to what it costs to produce (the oil)," Bland said. "Any further drop could cause the project to be shut down completely."

The threat of oil companies pulling out of the Lindbergh fields has the mayor of Elk Point concerned. But, Buck said town council is standing by its motto of "conservative optimism".

"Definitely we have some concerns as to whether there will be any setback in projects and we're monitoring it very closely," Buck said. "We realize the whole thing is based on economics. We are being very cautious in our approach and if oil prices drop any more there may be some drastic changes made."

Road meeting today

Representatives of local governments, oil companies, Alberta Transportation and the Northern Alberta Development Council are meeting today in Elk Point to discuss the findings of a report on rural roads in the Lindbergh oilfield.

Spring Park Community

Wishes to announce that their

Draw Date Has Been Extended

And Will Now Be Drawn

JUNE 7, 1986

The report was commissioned by the NADC in response to a brief presented by the Elk Point Surface Rights Association last October, which pointed out the ever worsening state of these roads, due to increasingly heavy traffic in the oil patch.

Recommendations of the report, prepared by Opportunity West Development Ltd., include formation of a local transportation task force, encouragement of permanent enhanced recovery, pipelining of oil, water and waste water, dust control through the application of oily waste, posting speed limit signs, and designation of truck routes to control traffic flow. A road upgrading program developed by the county, the province and the oil companies, which would parallel oil development plans was also suggested.

SENIOR HIGH CURLING CHAMPS — In the Mixed category were Eddy Irvine, Joely Jenner, Tracy Goertzen and Kari Anderson of F.G. Miller High School, Elk Point, who defeated Vilna in the championship game.

FGM mixed curlers SPAA champs

F.G. Miller High School hosted curlers from Vilna and Mallaig on Monday for a one day bonspiel, the winners of which will advance to the High School Zones later this month. Mallaig gained top honors in both the Girls and Boys categories, with Elk Point winning the Mixed. Fernande Corbiere of Mallaig skipped teammates Collette Amyotte, Lilliane Corbiere and Lori-Anne Corbiere to the Girls Championship in an exciting game over Vilna. Elk Point was defeated in the round robin play downs.

Mallaig's Boys team also came out winners, with a victory over Elk Point in the final game. Joel Michaud skipped the champions, with Robert Vallee as third, Norman Vallee as second and Lee Dechaine as lead. Elk Point's team members were Brad and Jason Anderson, Corey Blize and Brad Miller.

Eddy Irvine and rinkmates Joely Jenner, Tracy Goertzen and Kari Anderson of Elk Point worked hard for their win in the mixed competition, with a very close final game over Vilna.

Congratulations to all the winners, and good luck in the next round of competition.

Carnival of nations

"We Are The World" is the exciting theme chosen by the Elk Point and District Skating Club for their 1986 Skating Carnival, which will feature costumes and music from many nations, plus guest skaters and a visiting precision team.

Slated for 7 p.m. on Friday, February 28, the carnival will be opened by a huge color parade made up of representatives of many local clubs and organizations. The club's forty skaters, aged from three years and up, will then perform both group numbers and solos sure to delight the audience.

Skating Club spokesperson Debbie Ballas pointed out that the word "figure" had been dropped from the name this year, because the club offers both non-figure (CanSkate) and figure (CanFigure Skate) programs to local youngsters. Mrs. Ballas noted that the skaters have been working hard all season in preparation for the Carnival, and that the upcoming performance will "show a lot of local talent."

The guest skaters include Gina Capjack of Edmonton, who competes at the provincial level, and who was one of the skaters performing at the opening of West Edmonton Mall, and Michael Pollard of the Medley Figure Skating Club. Two local girls who are now members of the St. Paul Figure Skating Club: Cynthia Oester and Katherina Ludlage. Miss Ludlage also coaches skating in Elk Point, along with Jasie Veer and Rhonda Golby.

The visiting precision team is from Vermilion.

Musical entertainment will be provided by Don Buryn's school band.

Room for improvement

Discussion of the NADC-commissioned report on road conditions in the oil patch begins today, with representatives of all affected parties in attendance, in an effort to improve conditions which have gone from bad to worse, to worse yet.

As the report says, these roads were not originally built for heavy traffic - they were built to serve the agricultural community which was in place at that time. Increasing amounts of heavy trucks and equipment which came in the wake of the discovery of heavy crude oil in the area soon turned the peaceful gravel byways into pothole-pocked, dusty highways of commerce, where motorists were often forced to pull over and stop when big trucks approached and farmers were apprehensive about travelling from field to field with their machinery.

The deterioration of the roads has been a bone of contention at virtually every ERCB hearing in the area, which is an indication of the priority the road problem has become in the view of the farm community. It cannot be easy for the oil community either, to have to subject their vehicles to the deteriorated roads and for these vehicles to slow down to a crawl to get across the worst parts, and be shaken to pieces on the rough surfaces.

These roads are a common problem to all who use them, and where to find the necessary funds to repair and upgrade them is a very large problem facing the counties where the roads are located.

Hopefully, through the discussion generated by the report's findings, solutions which will service the needs of all affected parties will be found, along with a new spirit of cooperation between these groups.

Pioneer Circle February meeting

By Irene Magnusson

The February Pioneer Circle Directors' meeting was called to order at 2:00 p.m., on Tuesday, Feb. 11th, by President Marg Clark, with sixteen members present.

Minutes of the Jan. 21st meeting were read by secretary Nellie Merrick, followed by a detailed financial report given by treasurer Erika Bender. A brisk discussion followed, with a motion finally passed that the treasurer move some of the Club's savings into a term deposit, as this would seem to draw more interest, and no major expenditure is in the immediate offing. It was also agreed to move some funds from the chequing account into the savings account.

More funds were needed in the Whist play-off fund, as prizes are given in this each week. A motion was made to reduce the prize amounts for 1st, 2nd and 3rd awards, and to eliminate the so-called "booby" prize entirely, and this was agreed to. In other dispersals of funds, it was noted that $100 donation had been made to the Jan Frisbee fund; $35 donation to the F.G. Miller Awards Night fund, and $100 sent to Telerama. These donations are taken from the Bingo funds.

Last month a committee was requested to speak to Town Council re the garbage collection costs, especially as it referred to seniors in the town. Bess Jendruck reported for the committee. As predicted, the seniors, along with every residential home in town, will be required to pay $5 per month collection fee, which will be billed along with Water & Sewer. As for non-residential places, such as the Seniors' center, council suggested they could perhaps share garbage collection costs with the nearby Elks' hall, and/or the curling rink. The cost is said to be $28 per month rental for the bin, with the further charge of $7 to $11 for each collection - presumably a weekly pick-up. This 'sharing' plan will be looked into.

Housekeeping matters were all under control, Mrs. Jendruck said. The next meeting will be a Directors meeting, on the 2nd Tuesday of March (the 11th), as usual, contrary to the date on the Elk Point Lion's Club Dates Calendar, which places Pioneer Circle meetings on the 3rd Tuesdays. This is an error.

The Annual meeting will be in April, second Tuesday. The Pioneer Circle monthly dance will be on the 25th of Feb. with Doreen Youngmans' group playing. The cost is very small for an evening of dancing and good music.

Members are urged to get their recipes in for the Cookbook being compiled by the Pioneer Circle. This is a fund raising project undertaken some time ago, but recipes have been slow in coming in. Clark has a deadline to meet, and would like to see those recipes soon. They need not be typed, just plain enough to be read. They will be typed out later.

A meeting, well-attended, took place on Feb. 10th, in the hall, a report on a project undertaken by the Council on Aging. This project was to help seniors become re-involved in their communities. This project-survey has now been completed, and was such a seeming success, that further such programs will probably be promoted. There are copies of the report in booklet form at the Pioneer Circle hall, and may be picked up for study. The recommendations suggest this method of encouraging involvement could be used in any community where there are seniors, "to further the goals of increasing meaningful involvement in senior centers," as well as to identify and act on concerns in the community.

Pioneer Circle members are presently involved in several sports events, traveling to other communities for play-offs.

February-- Blah

Isn't this the time of year we usually get a spell of nice, temperate weather that tries to fool us into believing that it's spring? Not this year, it seems. In spite of predictions by the furry forecasters, this can't be spring -- not at 40 degrees below, on both Celcius and Fahrenheit scales.

This cold weather should, at least, please all the pessimists who told us that we would be sure to pay for all that nice weather earlier in the winter. After all, except for a short period in December, this is the only traditional winter weather we have had -- the rest has been quite bearable.

And we're not the only ones to suffer -- picture Vancouver with ten inches of snow! The southern Alberta farmers are no doubt pleased to receive their dose of the white stuff, even with the accompanying cold, as it will mean a tiny bit of moisture in the spring. Actually, we can use the moisture ourselves. But would someone PLEASE crank up that thermostat out there?

ANNA

"Second Class Mail Registration Pending"

Letter to the Editor

Colourful language

Dear Editor:

I am looking for the assistance of your readers with an intriguing project. Perhaps in the process we will be able to prove an Easterner wrong.

On Saturday, February 1st, on the C.B.C. radio, Ann Thurlow was interviewed about a dictionary of words which are native to Prince Edward Island. This dictionary will apparently be much like one recently published which contains the unique expressions of Newfoundland. In the course of the interview she made the remark that a dictionary like this could never come out of anywhere but the east, that there could never be a dictionary of, for example, Saskatchewan words. By the tone of her comments it was obvious that for "Saskatchewan" you could read "Western Canadian country bumpkins".

Well, maybe Western Canada does not have the same reputation for local colorful language as Newfoundland, but I cannot believe that our prairie experience has not, over the years, created its own contributions to the English language. I can, in fact, think of several words and phrases that are part of unique Western expression.

There must be hundreds and hundreds more of these words, phrases or expressions, (such as "prairie oyster"), that are, or have been, used in the local colloquial language of Westerners. As a teacher of English for many years the idea of making a collection of such words intrigues me. I would greatly appreciate it if your readers could help me by suggesting appropriate words to be added to the list.

Just jot down the words, phrases, expressions or sayings. For each one please give me the meaning as you understand it and, if possible, the area where you know that language to have been used and when, plus your name and address. Send them to Mr. C. Thain, 657 Silverstone Ave., Winnipeg, Man. R3T 2V8. The more words you can send me the better.

What were all those words our fathers and grandfathers used to use? What are the one we still use today? Please let me know and we may be able to show a snooty Easterner, and maybe even the Newfies, a thing or two about colourful, local language.

Yours sincerely,
C.E. Thain, Winnipeg

Cherry seeks nomination

Doug Cherry, well-known area resident, has put his name forward to seek the nominations as candidate for the provincial Progressive Conservative constituency of Lloydminster.

Born and raised in British Columbia, Doug enlisted in the Canadian Army, seeing services in the Korean War. After 12 years he selected discharge in 1961, and began farming north of Lloydminster. During the years he has been active in many organizations and has always had a keen interest in politics. He was elected to the County of Vermilion River Council Trustees in 1980 and has been Chairman of the Board of Education since 1983. Presently acting as past President of the Lloydminster Progressive Conservative Association, he is very interested in provincial politics and feels he has something to offer the people of this constituency with his understanding of local issues.

He is married to the former Marlene Clark of the Streamstown area who is presently teaching for the Lloydminster Public School system. He and Marlene have four children: Blake and his wife Lana who reside on the farm; Brenda and her husband Craig who are both Chartered Accountants in Calgary; Corrine who is completing a Master of Music degree at the U of A in Edmonton; and Leanne who is pursuing a degree in Political Science in Calgary.

Clandonald News

By Shirley Osinchuk
Clandonald Correspondent

The Landonville Lords hockey team held a tournament in Derwent on Feb. 6 to 9. This was a double modified knock-out tournament with ten teams playing. They were Clandonald O Vs, Vermilion Raiders, Lindbergh, Elk Point Corlan, Landonville Lords, Vermilion Flames, Vermilion Porta, Frog Lake, Derwent and Vermilion Transportation. In the A event, the Vermilion Raiders won over the Clandonald O Vs, 3 - 2, and in the B event, the Landonville Lords won 3 - 2 over the Elk Point Porta team.

The Clandonald Men's Bonspiel results are: in the Grand Challenge, the Glen Ewen rink from Dewberry won over Frank Molineux rink. The Lynn Parr rink from Dewberry won the second event over the Francis Monaghan rink. The Don Martin rink from Islay won the third event over the Gerald McCormack rink.

The Mixed Bonspiel comes up next, on Feb. 20 - 23. Contact Gary Harasiuk, 853-6513, or Ken Lawrence, 853-2114, for information.

The grade 5 & 6 class at the school are planning a Nickel Carnival on Fri., Feb. 28. All proceeds will go to the Cultural Fund which pays to bring theatre groups to the school.

The Junior High Basketball teams are doing well. The girls have won their games over Marwayne and J.R. Robson, and placed third in the tournament in Kitscoty. The boys won their game with St. Jerome's on the 5th.

On Tues., Feb. 5, the grade 9 students went to Marwayne school to hear Dr. Tim Theis speak. This is the second year that Dr. Theis has spoken to Junior and Senior High School students on communication, sexuality and responsibility. He specializes in pre-marital, marriage and family counselling, and has a warm, interesting manner that makes him easy to listen to, and leaves the audience with some new information and ideas.

The skating rink has been in use for a while now, with Public Skating each day from 7 to 10 p.m., and Sunday from 2 to 5:30. A supervision schedule has been sent home in the school newsletter.

Vernon and Susan Nelson, and Tony Lawrence are recent winners of the Agricultural Society Draw.

The regular Clandonald Local (School) Advisory Board meeting will be on Tues., Feb. 25, at 8 p.m. in the school. This meeting is open to everyone. If you wonder what the L.A.B. does, or have concerns about your school, please attend.

Daffinition of "conference" meeting of the bored.

Out our way

By Mildred Dunham

Ferguson Flats Correspondent

With the return of cold weather, most people are down with the "winter blues". The only cheer I found this past week was at the home of Don Lorenson. His daughter, Marsha Purdy & kids were out from Red Deer to celebrate two year old Mathews' birthday on Valentine's Day.

Spring Park way, Stella Stone is relieved to be back after undergoing surgery at the University hospital in Edmonton, then spending time in Elk Point hospital. Although still not up to par, Stella says there's no place like home.

The Primrose & Ferguson Flats communities merged as one with the passing of Gerald Heffernan, a long time resident of Primrose and relative to many living in Ferguson Flats. After jamming the little St. Michaels' Cathedral in Elk Point for the services on Saturday, as many people filled the Ferguson Flats Hall for the lunch afterwards. We used to call the Heffernan residence the "Ponderosa" as Gerald & Marge would offer their home to many people that needed friends or a place to stay, regardless of race or creed. Most of them showed their appreciation by travelling many miles to come to the funeral and visit with relatives. All the neighbors banded together to offer whatever help was needed just as "Jerry" was always there when we needed him.

General Municipal Plan

General Municipal Plan . . .

The General Municipal Plan (G.M.P.) is a planning strategy, adopted by a municipality, to guide the decision-making process on all matters that concern future community growth and development. The G.M.P. determines the location of future land uses and establishes policies to help achieve long-range planning goals for Elk Point.

Plan Review . . .

In response to increasing growth pressures on the community, Town Council appointed a committee to review and update Elk Point's current General Municipal Plan (Bylaw No. 332). This review was initiated to ensure that the G.M.P. reflects the current needs and priorities of Elk Point's residents, as well as encourage orderly growth and development in the community.

Purpose of Open House . . .

The Review Committee prepared a new General Municipal Plan following an in-depth analysis of the existing planning policies, local land use-related issues, development trends and the prospects for future community growth.

The intent of this informal "open house" is to provide an opportunity for local residents to view and discuss the long-range development plans for Elk Point. Members of the Review Committee will be present to answer any questions you may have and welcome all comments and suggestions.

For Further Information . . .

Free copies of the proposed General Municipal Plan will be available from the Town Office.

If you have any questions concerning the General Municipal Plan or open house, please call the Town Administration at 724-3810.
